Job Purpose

BACKGROUND

Colchester Korban Project was established by several churches in Colchester, as a Christian response to youth homelessness in 2008. We currently operate 2 homes providing medium term (2 – 3 years max) supported accommodation for 8 young people aged 16 – 25 years who are homeless or at risk of homelessness. Our residents are typically working towards part/full-time voluntary work, education or employment. Korban helps them realise their potential and thrive, by providing accommodation, support, resources and guidance enabling them to develop the character, skills and confidence to live independently.

The successful candidate will work closely with our Chief Executive and play a key role in our growing and dedicated team, delivering, managing and developing our supported housing work.

Job Description

Management and service delivery

- Work with the Chief Executive and Board of Trustees to ensure our supported housing project delivers excellent outcomes for residents in line with our mission, aims and values, incorporating Christian spirituality in an inclusive manner eg. participating in and leading prayer and reflection times for staff and residents when appropriate
- Ensure funds are spent appropriately to cover regular and unplanned expenses according to set budgets
- Develop the Korban programme of support, implementing any new initiatives, in collaboration with the Chief Executive
- Line manage members of staff and supervise volunteers
- Provide induction, supervision and training for staff and volunteers when appropriate
- Play an active role in the process of recruiting any staff and volunteers needed to provide the service
- Create and maintain good working relationships with other relevant agencies and organisations
- Ensure all of Korban's risk management policies and procedures are applied as necessary
- Ensure financial and payment systems, where relevant, are completed in line with financial policy and procedures
- Apply all relevant Korban policies and procedures including safeguarding and GDPR as well as general Health and Safety duties and responsibilities, set out in the charity's Health and Safety Policy
- Actively promote the work of Korban and represent the charity well on all occasions
- Apply equal opportunities and anti-discriminatory practice at all times, ensuring provision is accessible to residents
- You will be part of a team responsible for an on-call service, provided on a rota basis at agreed times.

NB. Being on call is essential, but our experience and the nature of our residents means any call outs are infrequent.

House security, maintenance and Health & Safety

- Be responsible for maintaining Korban properties to a high standard within an agreed budget
- Ensure monthly house and room inspections are carried out and any actions arising are addressed
- Ensure CCTV/Ring doorbell is working, footage is monitored regularly and ensure any issues arising are dealt with

Working with Residents:

- Ensure all potential residents are interviewed and safety (risk) assessments undertaken as well as liaising with referring agencies to ensure residents are eligible and appropriate for Korban, and any information sharing is in line with GDPR
- Oversee residents from 'move in to move on' including induction, claiming relevant benefits, evictions and move-ons
- Provide support cover for all residents (if/when their support worker is not available); in a variety of different areas
- Be responsible for maintaining up to date records on all residents
- Manage all residents' rent accounts, ensuring they are up to date and any arrears owed by residents / Housing benefit (or overpayments) are addressed appropriately
- Manage and resolve conflicts and carry out disciplinary procedures, in discussion with the Chief Executive if necessary
- Attend and participate in communal meals on a weekly basis at our hub house, and as required at our move-on house. Support residents to cook or ensure there is a team member available to do this.
